Identification

Your personal in-house "Premium All-Inclusive Plan" I.D. card has been issued for your own use with your individual name and number and should always be carried with you during your stay. This is your own personal identification for plan purposes and without this card, you will not be able to make any consumption in any Food & Beverage outlet. In case you lose your "Premium All-Inclusive Plan I.D. card, please inform the Reception immediately. The Receptionist will immediately cancel your lost/misplaced card and issue another card with a new number.

You will be asked to write your name, room number and sign a check each time you receive service even though the amount is zero. Please note that only you can sign for your personal Food and Beverage consumption. In case you are asked to sign for items you did not consume please refuse profoundly and immediately notify the management.

IMPORTANT: This card cannot be given, loaned or sold to anyone else for use, whether is a family member or a friend.
